

God's Wonderful World

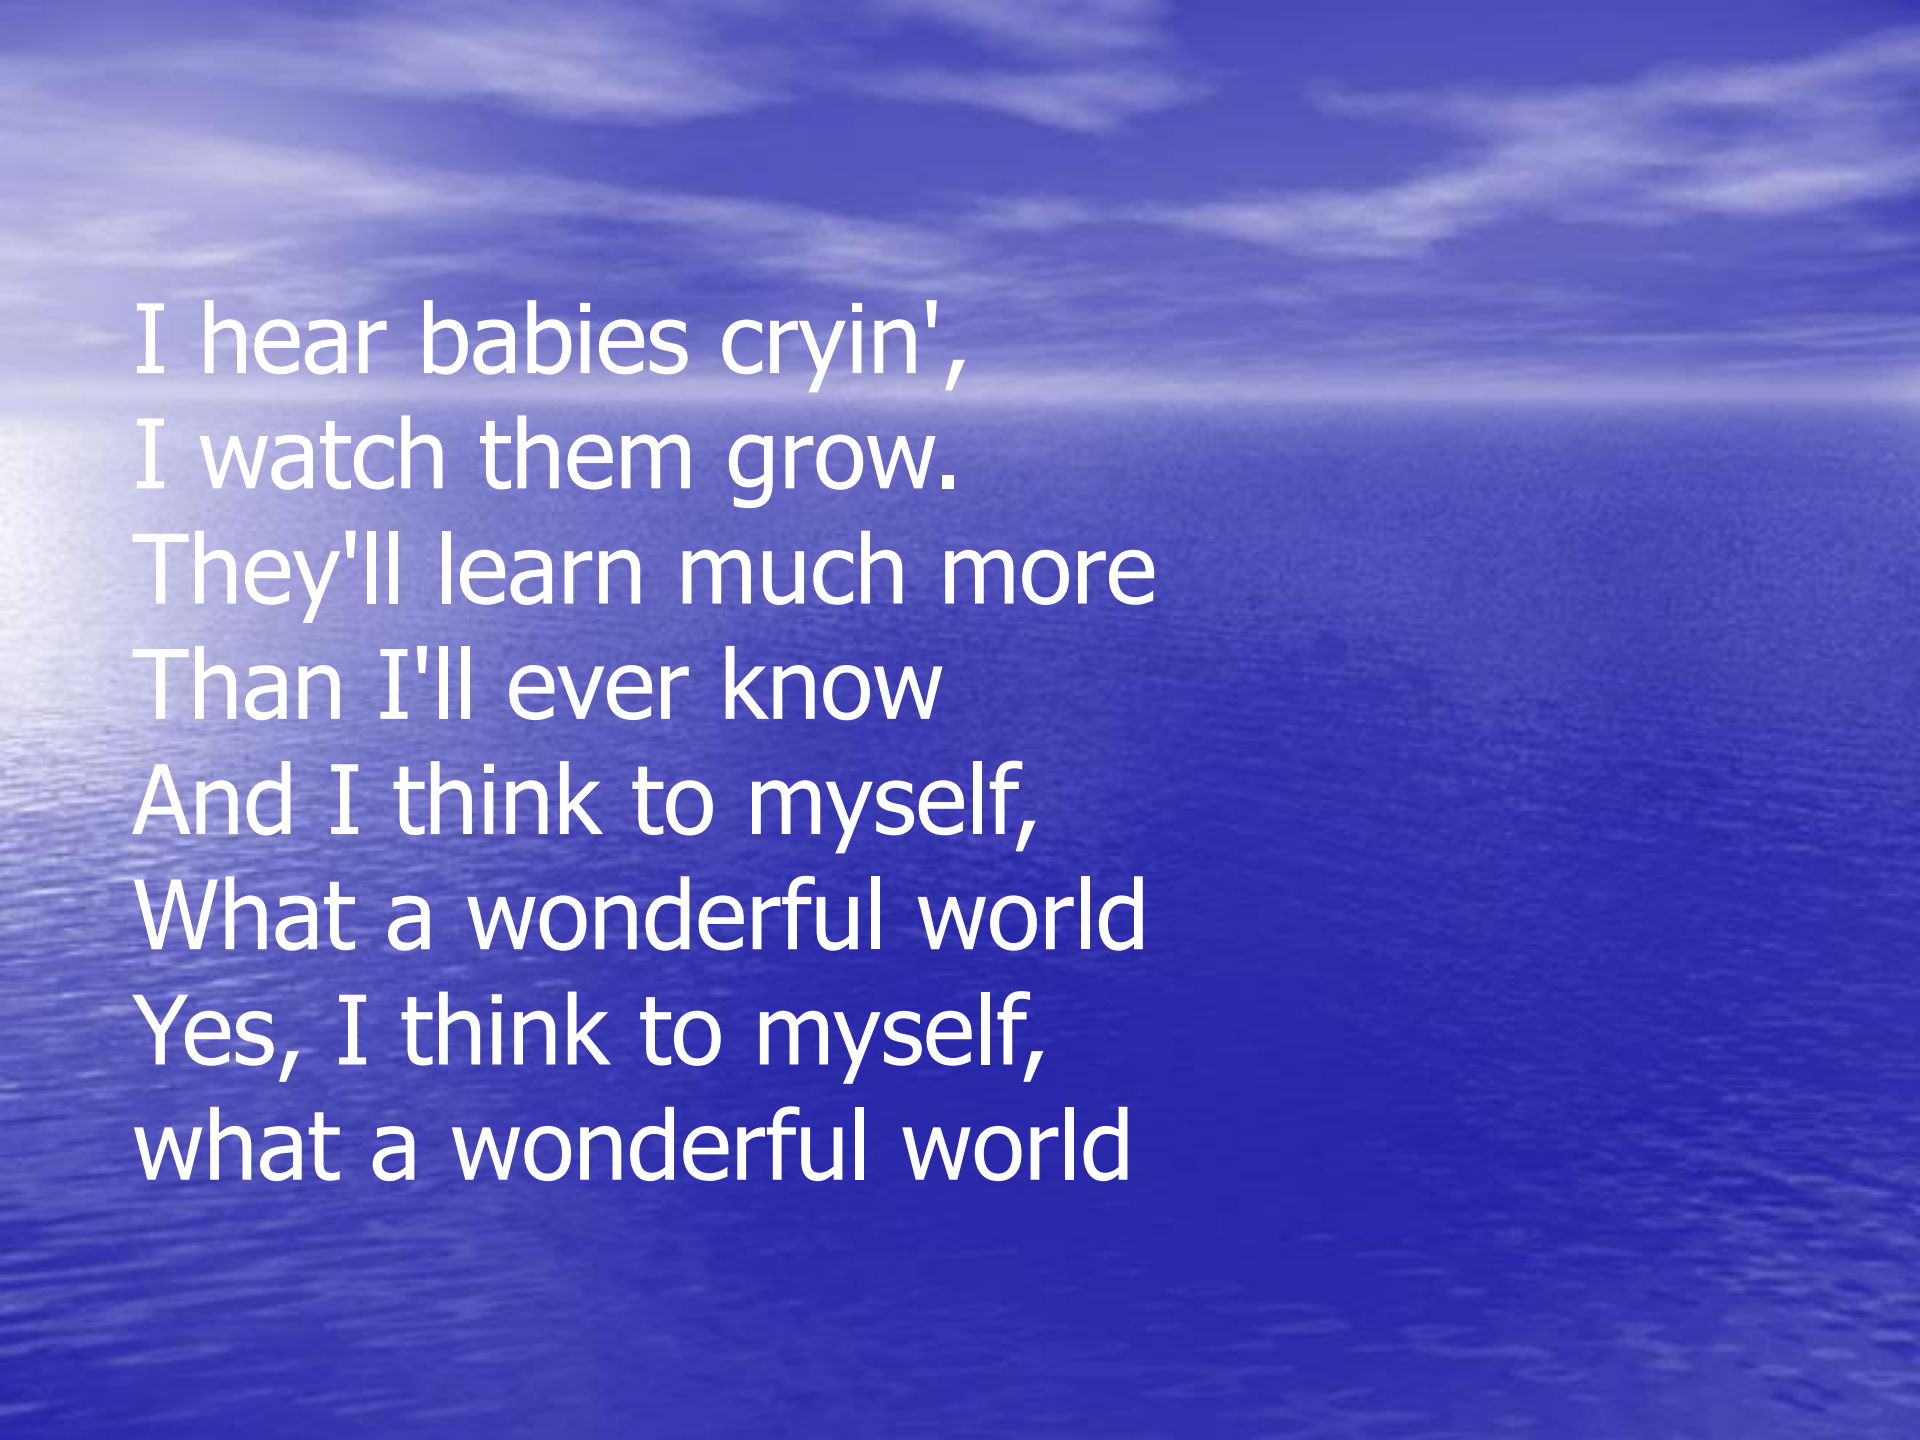

<https://webramiroangles.blogspot.com/2013/02/song-what-wonderful-world.html>

I see trees of green, red roses too
I see them bloom for me and you
And I think to myself,
What a wonderful world.

I see skies of blue and clouds of white
The bright blessed day,
The dark sacred night
And I think to myself, what a wonderful world

The colours of the rainbow,
So pretty in the sky,
Are also on the faces
Of people going by.
I see friends shakin' hands,
Sayin' "How do you do?"
They're really saying "I love you"

The background is a deep blue gradient. On the left side, there is a bright sun flare that fades into the blue. A thin, light-colored horizon line is visible in the upper third of the image. The text is white and centered on the left side of the image.

I hear babies cryin',
I watch them grow.
They'll learn much more
Than I'll ever know
And I think to myself,
What a wonderful world
Yes, I think to myself,
what a wonderful world

Louis Armstrong 1901 - 1971

What a Wonderful World" was written by songwriters Bob Thiele and George David Weiss, first performed by Louis Armstrong, in 1967.

The song describes the singer's delight in the simple enjoyment of everyday life and in the beauty, the 'goodness' of creation.
